

BRIDE & GROOM™ Magazine

B&G wants to get with your program in the Spring 2010 issue!

If you've seen, purchased, created or photographed unique wedding invitations, place cards, seating charts or programs, then we want to hear from you!

A pictorial featuring these essential wedding elements is planned for the upcoming Spring 2010 issue. If you've got great photos, then we want to see them for possible inclusion in this feature.

Who can submit?

Brides, grooms, mothers of brides and grooms, wedding planners, stationery vendors and photographers—anyone who has seen great stuff and can provide great pictures of it.

What should be submitted?

Up to but no more than 10 high quality photos of any or all of the paper elements listed above from a professional wedding photographer. Please include:

- Couples' names and date/location of wedding.
- Name, Web address and phone number of the photographer.
- Name, Web address and phone number of the person or company that created the invitation, program, etc.
- All images should be high resolution and suitable for printing.

How should images be sent?

Via e-mail to editor@bridegroommag.com. Please put "Get with the program" in the subject line.

When should images be submitted?

On or before March 5, 2010.
